Dear Parents & beloved Students

Several challenges were there in our journey but our determination and the echoing of the tune ' we shall overcome some day' constantly encouraged and finally it's team spirit and cumulative achivement with commitment and undaunted support of the management. Life a long journey which can not be limited within the educational sphere, life style of the individual, effort, social interaction and most importantly to nourish the different sectors for overall growth development and prosperity is very important which is reverberated in the voice of Swami Vivekananda ji- "Stand up, be bold, be strong.
